

Learning Support Staff Network Meetings

Monday 4th February 2019 1.30 – 3pm EYFS/ KS1

(other dates to be confirmed)

Ridgeway Primary Academy

The TA networks meetings will happen twice a term with one session aimed at staff supporting EYFS and KS1 and the second aimed at those supporting KS2. The sessions will respond to identified training needs gathered from the summer conference.

The EYFS and KS1 session (4th February) will explore phonics and how to support children's learning in phonics – Led by Sarah Walker.

The second half of the session will begin to look at the role of the teaching assistant in the classroom and how to develop scaffolding techniques to support learning and develop children's independence. This will be further developed in the sessions that follow in the summer and Autumn terms

The KS2 session in March will explore spelling through word study and how to support children's learning in spelling and grammar. The second half will be as above.

Cost: £15
